

Congratulations, historians and musicians! You have been selected to present a short musical piece of your creation (or modification) at our Revolution Celebration! Below you will find some blank music staves to help you get started.

Requirements:

Each student must perform at least 6 bars of music.

Music must be accompanied by lyrics (singing optional).

Each piece of music/lyrics needs to be connected in some way to the French Revolution.

You will be assessed on:

Completion on time (Piece submitted and ready to perform on Monday, March 9)

Connection is made to French Revolution (Either directly or through thoughtful explanation)

Performance before the class (Doesn't need to have been perfect)
